TUESDAY EVENING AUG. 27, 1895

MURDER MIXES POLITICS. The retirement of Dabney Marshall, democratic candidate for the Senate in the Vicksburg district of Mississippi, in consequence of the killing of Denkins for making charges of Oscar Wildism against him, has got badly mixed up with Mississippi politics. The democratic executive committee of Warren county yesterday accepted Marshall's resignation of the nomination, at the same time declaring its confidence in his high and honorable confidence in his high and nonorable character as a gentleman and demanding his pardon. Marshall's lawyer was Senator McLaurin, the democratic candidate for governor, who is certain to be elected to that office in a few weeks, and it was at McLauran's suggestion. that Marshall and his two friends who assisted him in killing Denkins, Messrs. Coleman and Fox, pleaded guilty of murder.

This was done to avoid the scandal of a trial that would have been nauseating in the disgusting facts it promised to bring out. The relatives of Denkins were consulted and they agreed to raise no objection if the three men were sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Now comes the organized democracy demanding a pardon for Marshall. The case is complicated by the fact that Marshall's lawyer will be the Governor of Mississippi in a few weeks with full and unconditional power of pardon.

McLaurin is being savagely attacked for his action, which, it is claimed, has put him in a false position. He defends himself by declaring that, as a lawyer, he had a right to act as counsel in any case, whether he is a candidate or not, but the Greenville Times, the Vicksburg Commercial-Herald and other leading democratic papers are severe in their criticism and have drawn from him a letter that his position as counsel in the Marshall case will not necessarily preclude him from granting a par-don, no matter how strong the petition for it may be.

Kenneth Bazemore had the good for-tune to receive a battle of Chamber-lain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhee Remedy when three members of his family were sick with dysentery. This one small bottle cured them all and he had some left which he gave to Geo. W. Baker, a prominent merchant of the place, Lewiston, N. C., and it cured him of the same complaint. When troubled with dysentery, diarrhos, colic or cholera morbus, give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result. Tho praise that naturally follows its introduction and use has made it years naturally and use has made it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by L. Stabler & Co.
